Larue County Herald, August 1, 1912

In loving memory of little Harold Redman Atherton, who fell asleep on Sunday July 14th, 1912, at the home of his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Everett Atherton in Louisville. Harold was only 3 months and 12 days old, the little life budded only a few short months, to gladden a father and mother's tender hearts of love and care, and was then taken to bloom in a more glorious future in the great beyond where unbroken cords of love will keep drawing our sadden hearts to the skies to meet him in the end. His father, mother and little sister will all miss him but yonder in the soul's true home, free from pain and sorrow, free from death in the arms of Jesus, will he be resting watching, waiting for the loved ones as they shall come in to greet him in the sweet bye and bye. All that loving hearts and hands could do to keep him was done, but God saw best to take him to himself and the future will reveal to us why these buds of promise are taken from their homes to bloom in a brighter world than this.
